IN re: TRUSTEE FOR THE ESTATE OF Case No. 2022-00511-CB
Paul Kenneth Lapsley Jr.
Debtor

NOTICE TO CREDITORS
(Pursuant to Local Rule 3002-1)
PROOF OF CLAIM DEADLINE: July 18, 2022

Paul Kenneth Lapsley Jr., the debtor in the above-captioned case, filed a petition for relief under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on April 19, 2022. You are receiving this notice because you may have a claim against the debtor.

Proof of Claim Deadline. Deadline for filing proof of claim: July 18, 2022. A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. If a proof of claim is not timely filed, it may not be allowed.

Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions. In general, creditors may not take certain actions against the debtor or the debtor's property. Because the debtor has filed for relief under the Bankruptcy Code, the following actions are stayed: Creditors cannot garnish wages, collect debts, or repossess property without permission from the bankruptcy court or the chapter 7 trustee. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual damages and punitive damages.

Meeting of Creditors. The debtor will be examined under oath by the chapter 7 trustee at the meeting of creditors. Creditors may attend, but are not required to do so. The meeting may be continued or adjourned to a later date. If so, the later date will be on the court docket.

Exempt Property. The debtor is allowed to keep certain property as exempt. Under the Bankruptcy Code, the debtor may be allowed to exempt property up to $25,150 plus an unused amount of the homestead exemption provided under state law. Other limitations may apply. The deadline to object to exemptions is 30 days after the conclusion of the meeting of creditors.

Discharge of Debts. The debtor is seeking a discharge of most debts, which may include your debt. A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the discharge order. Under certain circumstances, you may be allowed to file a complaint to try to have your debt excepted from discharge. A complaint must be filed by the deadline stated in the "Deadlines" section of this notice.

Do Not File a Claim at This Time. You should not file a claim at this time. If it appears that creditors will be paid, you will be sent another notice telling you that you may file a proof of claim and stating the deadline.
